

Curriculum Vitae

Wojciech Stanisław Materka

MBA, PhD

Professional Experience

Adjunct Professor of Organizational Behaviour | INSEAD

2020–now

My focus is teaching, directing and designing open-enrolment and company-specific programmes for high potentials and senior executives across INSEAD's three campuses. I also teach "Psychological Issues in Management" elective for INSEAD MBAs, for which I was nominated three times for the 'best elective teacher' award and received it twice, and the capstone "Lead for Good" workshop in the Masters in Management degree program.

Leadership Consultant and Executive Coach | INSEAD

2017–2025

I coach and consult to senior leaders participating in executive education programmes. The work is heavily experience-based and focuses on interpersonal and group dynamics. It also involves executive coaching and leadership development that touch on professional and personal challenges that leaders encounter in their work.

Director and Head of Digital | WhatIF Innovation Partners, London, UK

2016–2017

I directed multiple programs that aimed at developing innovation capability and culture. I focused on helping companies adopt new ways of working and thinking about change and innovation in UK and across Europe.

Principal | SecondRoad, now part of Accenture Strategy, Sydney, Australia

2013–2015

We helped leaders and organisations to engage in strategic innovation projects, by combining the worlds of Design, Strategy and Leadership Consulting to work on the whole system level. SecondRoad is a pioneer in design for socio-technical innovation.

Digital Innovation Consultant and Executive | Australia

2009–2013

I worked with multiple large businesses in APAC region on the implementation of organisational transformation in response to the emerging digital opportunities, with companies like Rabobank, ING Bank, AMP Financial Services among others.

Deputy General Manager | mBank (CommerzBank), Poland, Czechia and Slovakia

2003–2009

I held various leadership roles in one of the fastest growing corporate ventures in EU. I led international expansion efforts, recruited and led multiple product teams, and designed and launched a range of successful online products. Among other things I led the design and development of the first online credit card in Central Europe, the first purely online savings account for teenagers and multiple co-branded financial products with companies such as Carrefour and Orange Telecom.
